

VAN SCHIJNDEL HUIS

Dear Architecture Lover,

Thank you for your interest in a visit of the Van Schijndel House.

Since 2008, the Van Schijndel House is open for a limited number of visits and group visits. Professional architects, designers and schools of architecture and design are given priority. The visits are organized by appointment and are limited to a maximum of 10 people per group. Once an appointment has been made, a list of the names and contact information of all members of the group will be required and only those listed will be permitted entrance to the house. Groups are expected a few minutes before the visit at the address indicated below.

The tour includes the central area, kitchen and private spa on the ground floor, as well as the living room, former study and workshop. Since this is a private home, we ask your understanding that access to the first floor with master bedroom, guest bedroom and daily bathroom is not possible, but they are presented in the video tour that will be screened. Photography, other than of the exterior of the house, is not permitted.

In a 45-minute film that was produced in 1995 upon receiving the Rietveld Award for his design, the architect Mart van Schijndel (who passed away in 1999) gives a tour through his house and explains about his ideas, working method and inspirations. Coffee or tea is also included in the full entry fee. The foundation is a non-profit organization and everybody who is involved is a volunteer. Your donation contributes to the maintenance and programming of the house, which is the youngest monument of The Netherlands.

The cost of the tour is currently at a fixed fee of €25 per person. This includes coffee or tea and a cookie. Students, Docomomo Members and Members/Friends of the Mart van Schijndel Foundation or Iconic Houses Network (see www.iconichouses.org/support) receive a 50% discount and pay €12,50.

The fee is payable in advance, transferred to the account of:

Address bank: Tesselschadestraat 1
Area code: 8913 HA

Mention "donation" as reason for your payment and the date of your visit.

Once your payment is received, your tour is confirmed.

In opening the private Van Schijndel House to the public, our priority is educational.

To that end, we ask you, within 14 days after your visit, to write on TripAdvisor your thoughts regarding the Van Schijndel House and your experience of the visit.

I'll be pleased to welcome you at the house.

Sincerely yours,

Natascha Drabbe, MA
